From the Churchwardens...

Thanks to Fiona and helpers, St George-in-the-East offered drinks and snacks to visitors to the Marathon raising about £350 for Richard House, until they ran out of cups! It was great that we were able to raise the money this year.

Thursday 14th May is Ascension Day-following an evening service, we're going for a curry at Tiffin restaurant on Cannon Street Road. Please let Alex know if you are coming.

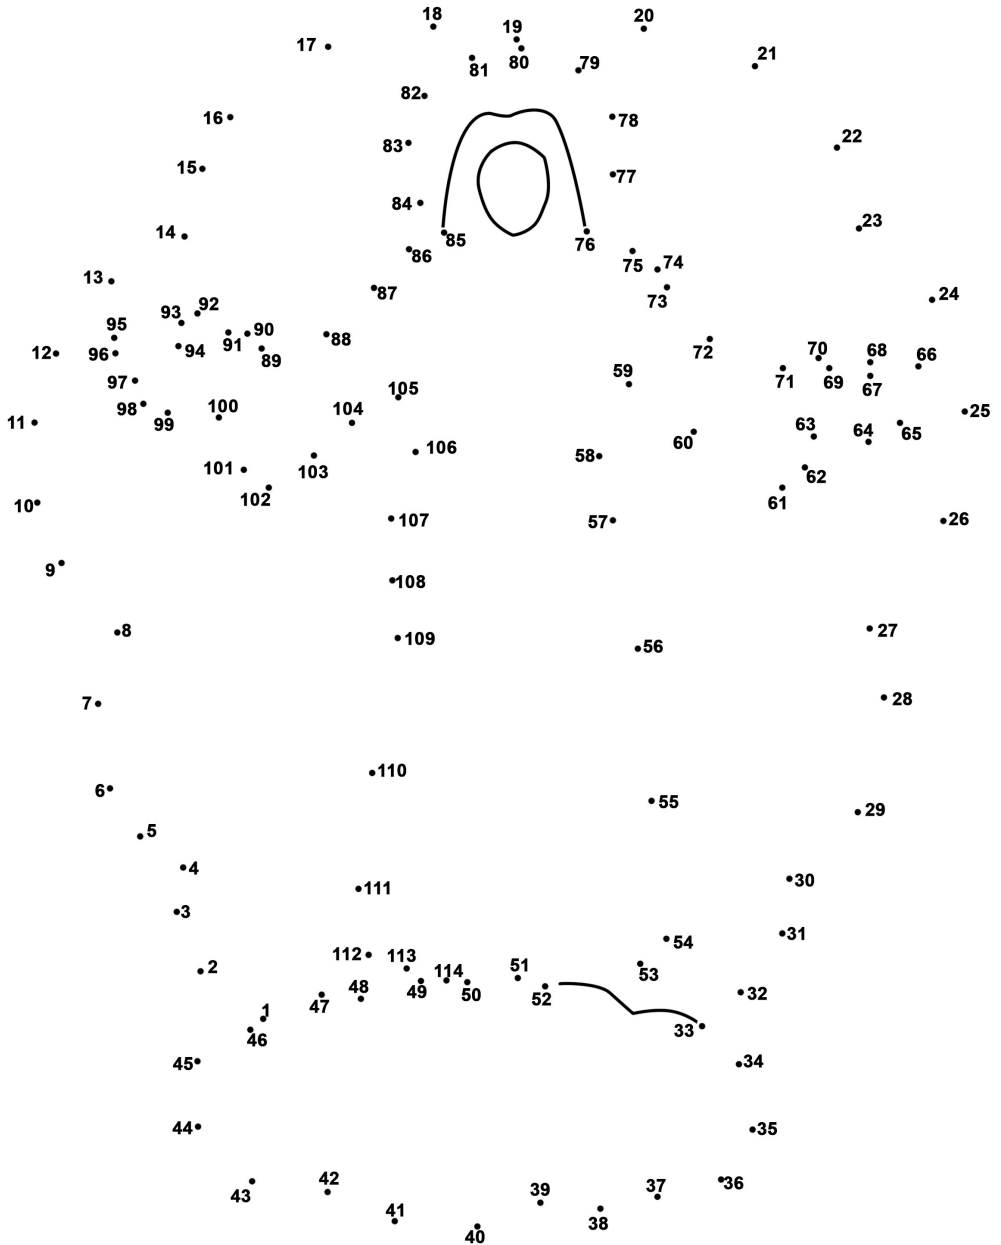

The first Shadwell Sunday Lunch saw members of different churches and mosques meeting together over delicious food. We're sure the food will be as delicious at the second Shadwell Sunday Lunch too! It will be on Sunday 31st May at 1.30pm at St Paul's, Shadwell and everyone is welcome! Allan, Phil, Rowena, Alex and Sybil were at the last one so can tell you more. There will be activities for children too (as well as food!).

The Annual Parochial Church Meeting was held on Sunday 12th April, and two new PCC members were elected-Paul Kellaway and Elspeth Wilkes join Annadale, Cathy, Diana, Mark, Margaret, Phil, and Rowena. Allan Ramanoop was also appointed as Deanery Synod representative; he and John Neyman will be representing us in upcoming synod elections this year.

And, of course, we're soon to have Tim and Angus as our priests. Their licensing and launch of the St George-in-the-East Partnership is on Wednesday 6th May and we're very much looking forward to having Tim and Angus with us from then. Our grateful thanks to everyone who has supported us through the vacancy.
